

We have some new clipboards and writing materials in the chicken pen, some students have already written some observations, drawn pictures of the chickens and coops and wrote stories from inside the chicken pen during their free time.

Our new chickens and pheasants look great at our school!

We love our new gate! Thanks Wayne!